

Vicky's and Nick's family have an emergency kit prepared in their home that have all the necessary supplies they might need in case of an emergency.

List 4 things that they should put in their kit.

Vicky and Nick are learning about earthquake preparedness from their teacher.

Act out in your classroom how to Drop, Cover, and Hold On under your school desk.

Vicky is at home when suddenly an earthquake happens and she is noticing that there are some cracks in the wall.

Because it is risky to evacuate the house, call the rescue team for help!

Nick is in school when suddenly he hears a rumbling noise and the ground starts shaking.

Identify potential hazards in your classroom that could cause an injury during an earthquake.

Vicky and Nick learned that most earthquakes are dangerous due to the damages it can cause to their surroundings.

List 3 types of damage that an earthquake can cause!

During the night, Nick is sleeping when he feels the floor shaking.

Name one object which will be very useful for your safety during the night.

Vicky and Nick are learning that after the end of an earthquake, they need to safely evacuate the classroom and follow certain rules.

Act on what to do and how to organise an evacuation

Vicky and Nick have evacuated safely their home when they realised that the next building has extensive damages and it was ready to collapse.

Because it's dangerous, stay away from this building

As the earthquake is starting, Vicky and Nick know they need to leave the building after it is done.

What should they avoid using when they are leaving the building?

Vicky and Nicky know that a whistle can save your life during an earthquake.

Name two cases when a whistle can save your life.

Vicky has learned at school that a sufficient number of water bottles are needed during an emergency.

List two reasons why water is so important.

After the earthquake, Nicky's family is ready to leave the house, but they know that they might spend a night in an external open area or a tent, until the rescue team and local authorities allow them to return back to their home.

List a tool that can help them spend a night and sleep well.

