

How long does an earthquake usually last?

1. few seconds to several minutes
2. days,
3. hours

What's an aftershock?

1. collapsed buildings
2. smaller shakes after the earthquake
3. landslide

Vicky is in her home and suddenly she feels an earthquake, what should she do?

1. Run outside the house
2. Stand by the window
3. Drop, Cover, and Hold On

When should you leave the building in case of an earthquake?

1. only after the ground stops shaking
2. leave immediately when you feel the ground shaking
3. you shouldn't leave the building

Do you know what are landslides, and why are they dangerous?

What do you think it's the safest place during an earthquake in your home?

1. in the garden under a tree
2. near a window
3. room where you can hide under a sturdy furniture

What should you do if you are outside during an earthquake?

1. drop to the ground and cover your head in a safe place
2. go under a tree
3. stand next to a building

What should you do if you and your family are in a vehicle during an earthquake?

1. drive faster
2. pull over and stay in the car
3. get out of the car and run away

What causes an earthquake?

1. movements under Earth's surface
2. bad weather
3. scientists aren't sure what causes them

What scale is used to measure earthquakes?

1. Kitchen scale
2. The Richter Scale
3. Earthquake scale

Do you know what a seismograph is?

Do all earthquakes cause tsunamis?

What can you do if your house/town is located near the coast and earthquake happens?

1. Remain nearby the coast
2. Move away to a space with higher altitude
3. Call the police

What should you do if you are at the beach during an earthquake?

1. Stay away from the coast
2. Continue your bath
3. Stay under the trees

